

Southside M.B. Church- Children/ Youth Expectations

Children/Youth Expectations

Children and youth are expected to be considerate and courteous to all adult leaders and peers. We will treat others, physical property and ourselves appropriately and respectfully.

We respect individuality of each young person, and we strive to understand their point of view. We desire to teach our children and youth the Word of God, how to handle life situations, and to make Godly decisions. Our children and youth are a vital part of our ministry today. It is our intention at Southside M.B. Church to train our children and youth to know God in a relationship with Jesus Christ, to love one another in the family of God, and to respect and care for the Lord's House, one another, and themselves.

Supporting and guiding all rules and expectations is the overriding concept of the 3R's: RESPECT, RESPONSIBILITY AND REVERENCE. This is based on the Great Commandment that Christ gave us Matthew 22- to love God and love one another.

Children/ Youth Expectations

The 3 R's should be used as guiding principles for children- youth to adult to help form the foundation of all behavior. If you love someone you show respect at all times, if you love someone you take responsibility for yourself and the situation at all times. If you love God and others you will show reverence during church events.

Southside M.B. Church will NOT be RESPONSIBLE for any electronic devices.
